The northern region of Israel, particularly the Galilee, is an enchanting landscape with lush forests, majestic mountains, and picturesque rural villages. The Sea of Galilee holds immense religious and historical importance, as it was where Jesus lived and performed miracles. Nazareth, another gem in Galilee's crown, is steeped in biblical history and serves as Israel's largest Arab city with rich traditions. To the east of the Sea of Galilee lies the Golan Heights, offering breathtaking vistas, nature reserves, and historic archaeological sites.

Haifa, a coastal city, boasts cultural diversity and the spectacular Baha'i Gardens. The city's bustling markets and historic sites, like the Stella Maris Carmelite Monastery, add to its allure. Akko, an ancient port city, preserves its Crusader past with the Knights' Halls and underground Templars' Tunnel.
